COLONIAL ROOM OVERVIEW

The room dates from the mid-18th century. The room is painted pine and includes a fireplace panel and dentil course, cornice, and paneled overmantel. The baseboards and a six-panel door and jambs are reproductions dating to the late 1950s. The heart of pine floor panels came from a 19th-century New Orleans house. The iron and brass lock is English or American and dates to c. 1750.
